TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION: U.S. citizens traveling to any destination outside of the United States will be required to present a valid U.S. passport. Passports must be valid for at least 6 months past your return date. Some countries require a visa for transit or entry. Passengers are responsible to ensure that they have all the proper documents for entry. All names on documents must match the legal name on your photo I.D., and travel document information must match tickets. Please check the State Department website at <http://travel.state.gov> for further information. Immunizations may also be required. Failure to comply with these regulations may result in denied boarding, denied entry, and/or government-imposed fines. If you are a citizen of a country other than the United States, there may be additional requirements. Check with the nearest consulate or embassy of the destination you are traveling to and find out the entry requirements for non-U.S. citizens. Cruise Passengers traveling from/to a United States Port of Turn may use a valid Government-Issued Photo ID and a state-issued Birth Certificate. Inquire for specific details.

TRAVEL PROTECTION: Journease Travel Specialists strongly suggest the purchase of trip cancellation/interruption insurance. Such travel insurance may be purchased from Journease Travel Specialists now or at a later date and before travel takes place; however, in the event that it is purchased at a later date, the terms and conditions of coverage may be more restricted.

RESPONSIBILITY: Journease Travel Specialists offers retail travel services to consumers, acting as an advisor for travel arrangements, which are provided by separate and independent vendors of travel services. Journease Travel Specialists does not operate, own, control, or otherwise provide the services of the independent travel vendors. Journease Travel Specialists assumes no responsibility for any operating failures, losses, damage, delay, or injury to you or members of your traveling party during your scheduled travel.

In the event an airline or travel vendor declares bankruptcy, they are not obligated to carry out or to provide funds. Money given to our agency immediately becomes the property of the airline or travel vendor as required by law. Journease Travel Specialists is not allowed to provide refunds for vendors who have declared bankruptcy. If an airline or travel vendor declares bankruptcy, it might continue services or stop completely. Other airlines or travel vendors might provide alternative services under the limited circumstances. It is the sole responsibility of the traveler(s) to pursue compensation under these circumstances.

By confirming a reservation with payment to Journease Travel Specialists, the consumer acknowledges that Journease Travel Specialists is not responsible for any delays, losses, accidents, damages to persons or property caused by any person, firm, corporation, or other legal entity, direct or consequential, providing travel services. Journease Travel Specialists is not responsible for any damages, direct or consequential, which may arise as a result of acts of God, social or labor unrest, war, political or national strife, terrorist activities, mechanical failures, climatic conditions or any other actions or omissions beyond Journease Travel Specialists' control. We reserve the right to make any changes with or without notice, which may become necessary, with the understanding that any additional expenses will be paid by the passenger. Please note that any unused portion of the schedule is not refundable. We also reserve the right to terminate tour/cruise services for any client at any time for good cause. Finally, we are not responsible for any mistake, error, or omission if not brought to our attention immediately, or for any errors or omissions that occur in typography or printing. All payment(s) must be received by the due date to avoid vendor cancellation and/or penalties.
